

BULLDOG

1965

Capital Appearance—The Beatles performed for a youthful audience in Washington on the night of February 12.

Opening for Juniors—These college juniors joined the Peace Corps' new summer project for six to eight weeks of training similar to that for regular Peace Corps volunteers. They later did surveying work near Taos, N.M. After graduation they will be sent to Latin America.

Ranger on Target—This is a photograph of the lunar surface taken by the Ranger 7 spacecraft prior to its impact on the moon July 31st. The area shown is about one and two-thirds miles on a side. The smallest craters are about 30 feet in diameter and 10 feet deep. Some of the large craters are about 300 feet in diameter.

Family Grieves—Gust Carlson, father of Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary slain by rebel troops in the Congo, dabbed at his eyes during a news conference in Los Angeles on November 24. He is flanked by his daughter and another son.

New Teen-Age Queen—Smiling Carolyn Mignini, 17, of Baltimore was crowned the new Miss Teen-age America of 1965 in Dallas on November 13.

World's Fair at Night—The New York World's Fair attracted as many visitors at night as it did during the day following its April opening. The nighttime lights set off the beautiful pavilions constructed by many countries.

Democratic Victor—President Lyndon Johnson won the 1964 election by the greatest plurality and per cent of the total vote in U. S. history. Johnson became President at the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Barry's Battle for Votes—Sen. Barry Goldwater was surrounded by fans at Knoxville, Tenn., airport September 16 as he campaigned for the presidency on the Republican ticket. The conservative senator swept to a first-ballot nomination at the convention in San Francisco.

National Events in Review—1964

Reds are the Winners—Roger Craig leaped on a group of teammates surrounding the pitcher Bob Gibson moments after the last out in the seventh World Series game won by the Redbirds over the Yankees, 7-5, in St. Louis.

I'm the Greatest—Cassius Clay whooped it up with his handlers after he won the world heavyweight title in Miami Beach in February. He was credited with a technical knockout of Sonny Liston when Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Alaskan Quake—A whole line of cars rested about 20 feet below street level on a main thoroughfare in Anchorage the day following the disastrous earthquake on March 27.

DEDICATION

The Student Body and Staff of Primero respectfully dedicates this year's edition of the Bulldog to the everlasting memory of one of our departed alumnus, ARNOLD ROYBAL. We sincerely hope that this small gesture will portray our heartfelt sympathy to the people who will eternally miss his bright, sunny, carefree ways. May God see fit to welcome you into his fold with as much enthusiasm as we, who mourn your passing.

JAMES W. SHOAF, SUPERINTENDENT

I wonder if adults ever stop to realize who the parents and citizens of tomorrow are? I wonder if these adults have done their job in preparing and training these parents and citizens of tomorrow? I wonder if these parents and citizens of tomorrow have taken advantage of the opportunities that have been made available to them?

We could go on forever with questions concerning tomorrow, yet we will always return to today. We must live today to reach tomorrow.

The employed and the unemployed have had very much in common. They have shared the most precious of all things - - - youth. Yet, while both were in this Utopia, which one was preparing for tomorrow? Which one could see only today?

To my knowledge there is no fountain of youth, nor is there any way to relive any day of your life. Prepare, then, today for tomorrow.
